

SCOTT GRADY, TREASURER

Retired from the Department of Defense Office of the Inspector General since 2012 after a 33-year career, Scott joined the GMHS Board in 2014. Upon relocating to Mathews County with his wife Alice, he was with the Inspector General, Yorktown Field Office, Health Care Division, Readiness and Operations Support since 1990; he started his Federal career with the U.S. Army Audit Agency in 1979 and was Managing Auditor of the Army Training and Doctrine Command Field Office. Scott received a BS in Accounting from the University of Richmond in 1979. He enjoys fishing, tennis, and riding his Paso Fino horses. He and his wife, Alice, have three dogs who like to join them on camping trips.